

THE | PAYPERS

Insights in payments

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Paypers (www.thepayers.com), the leading independent source of news and analysis for professionals in the global payment community, has an exciting opportunity for 2 talented individuals with excellent English to join our team based in Iasi, as part of an internship programme.

AMONG YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- ★ Content-related activities: transcribing interviews, searching for news items etc.
- ★ PR-related tasks, including seeking consistent communication through direct and e-mail marketing, with prospects and readers. You'll develop relationships with companies that are active in the field of payments, finance and financial logistics.
- ★ Research activities (updating lists with contact details, searching for new events to be posted on our website etc.)

The duration of the internship is 3 months. Bring your excellent English and communication skills and we will teach you the rest.

In the end, we evaluate you and provide you a list of achievements obtained during the internship. This will be in the form of an official recommendation.

If you are interested in learning to put knowledge into practice, gaining real world work experience prior to your graduation, your English is excellent and you are a fun person to work with, do not hesitate and send us an email in English, including your motivation letter and resume at adriana@thepayers.com.