CALL FOR PAPERS

“Challenges and Dynamics of European Administrative Area”

2022 EU-PAIR Annual International Conference
13th - 14th of May 2022, IASI, ROMANIA

The EU-PAIR 2022 Annual International Conference brings important and emerging issues concerning the trajectories of the European public administrations' actions in responding and being resilient to challenging pandemic times for to be discussed by academics, scholars, practitioners, doctoral students, students and interested parties, during 13th and 14th of May at the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi, Romania, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration.

Around the world, the public administrations face uncertainties and challenges as never before that require new managerial, financial, accounting, economic, organizational and policy solutions. This year, the conference commits to exchange research and practical solutions for current issues based on the old practices, to provide insights for the „new normality”. To develop a more accountable model for European public administrations, it is imperative that the academia, policy makers, practitioners, public managers, and civil society to discover new ways of actions for enhancing the performance and high quality of services for citizens well-being.

The interdisciplinarity of the EU administrative science field permits to have a broader list of subjects for debating from all areas of research.

The following tracks are stated for the conference (but not limited to):

Track 1: Performance Management in EU Public Administrations

Track 2: EU Public Administration Resilience and Cohesion

Track 3: Public Policy and Strategy in EU Public Administrations

Track 4: Labour Relations in EU. Present Demands and Perspectives
